

INTERNSHIP LUNCHEON

11:00 am — 1:30 pm

Leadership Room/Fireside Lounge
(2nd floor of the Student Center)

- Georgia Coalition Against Domestic Violence
- Georgia Breast Cancer Coalition Fund
- Dekalb Rape Crisis Center
- Cool Girls—A life skills program for low income, inner city girls
- MEGA Family Project—organization educates and empowers LGBT communities and families
- Image Film and Video—Out on Film (LGBT Film Festival) and other Women and Film partnerships
- Feminist Women's Health Center
- League of Women's Voters Georgia Statewide Offices
- Atlanta Gay Men's Chorus
- Georgians for Choice
- Men Stopping Violence
- Raksha—Promote a stronger and healthier South Asian community through confidential support services,

Monday, October 1, is Gender and Women's Studies Day!

From 11 am to 1:30 pm students will have the chance to meet representatives from 12 Atlanta-based organizations who are looking for Interns to begin as early as January 2008.

From 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm students, faculty, staff, and friends of Gender and Women's Studies will gather in the Interdisciplinary Programs Suite (SO 2005) for an informal reception.

From 3:30 to 5:00 pm in SO 2038, there will be a film showing and discussion of Jackson Katz's documentary Tough Guise, a film on violence and the construction of masculinity.

October 1 is GWST Day!

GWST Reception & Open House

1:30 pm - 3:30 pm

Interdisciplinary Suite

(SO 2005)

Film Showing:

Tough Guise

3:30 pm -

5:00 pm

SO 2038